Jiulin Wang

Education and Qualifications:

- Doctor of Medicine (MD) and Master of Science (MSc) in Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM)
  - Nanjing University of Traditional Chinese Medicine, China
  - Former Faculty Member
- Manual Osteopathic Therapist Designation
  - Manual Osteopathic College of Canada, 2020
  - Honored with Distinction

Academic and Professional Experience:

- Associate Professor and Former Chair, Acupuncture Program
  - Grant MacEwan University, Canada
- Founding Member
  - Bethune Oriental Medicine Center, Alberta, Canada
  - Largest Acupuncture/TCM Clinic in Alberta
  - Provides Private TCM/Acupuncture Services
- Teaching Experience
  - Taught TCM/Acupuncture in numerous universities across China, the United States, and Canada

Research and Publications:

- Post-Doctoral Fellowship Training in Neuroscience
  - Louisiana State University, USA
  - Oregon Health Science University, USA
- Collaborative Research Project on COPD
  - Partnered with Pulmonary Research Centre, University of Alberta
- Research Focus:
  - Pain Management
  - Mental Health
- Publications:
  - Authored over 30 professional papers and books
- Speaker Engagements:
  - Invited to deliver professional and public speeches globally

Professional Service and Contributions:

- Expert Reviewer:
  - Invited by the World Health Organization (WHO) for ICD-11 TM Code and Chinese Medicine Terminology
- Editorial Board Member:
  - Served on the editorial boards of three professional journals for the past decade
- Professional Membership and Leadership:
  - Active Member of the Acupuncture and TCM Profession in Alberta and

Canada since 2001

- Interim Council Member, College and Association of Acupuncturists of Alberta (CAAA) since 2007
- Elected CAAA Council Member (2010, 2012, 2014), served as Secretary and Treasurer
- Current Member, Conduct, and Competence Committee, CAAA
- Vice President, Alliance of Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine of Canada (AACMC)